PROJECT OVERVIEW AND CHALLENGES

Bradshaw Construction was installed 229 linear feet of 51" steel casing by microtunneling for the City of St. Petersburg Water Department. A 36 inch water transmission main was installed inside the casing. During mining, Bradshaw managed to maintain line and grade through very loose sand to medium dense fine sand and slightly silty sand, all below the water table.