PROJECT OVERVIEW AND CHALLENGES

The project for the College of William and Mary involved the construction of twin 600' by 60” diameter runs. 48” ID RCP was jacked behind a 60” diameter Akkerman TBM. Ground conditions encountered on the job included clay with some wet sand layers. The tunnels were used for steam and chilled water lines.